Rockin Blues Revue – Richard Blane specializes in Tribute Shows. His shows include Premier's Tribute to the Stars, The Dead Celebrity Show and the Sights and Sounds of the King. Richard performs tributes to Merle Haggard, Hank Williams, Englebert Humperdinck, Elvis and has combined his musical taste to create "The Rocking Blues Revue". In this show there will be a great blend of Oldies, Country, Blues and Rock and Roll.

June 25 ~ Retro Rockets

This six-member rock and roll band offers a unique blend of 50s and 60s rock and roll songs, ballads, instrumentals and R&B favorites; as well as classic country and blues from the 50s and 60s. They play songs from such artists as; Chuck Berry, Etta James, Roy Orbison, Elvis, Hootie and the Blowfish, The Drifters, Jimmy Buffet, Carrie Underwood, Bill Haley, Stevie Wonder, and many others.

July 2 ~ Red Bees Trio

"A Taste of Honey!" Folk Rock & Retro from Beatles to Girl Group and more! Get ready for nostalgia covered in sweet three part harmony! Amy Strow: Vocals and Assorted Percussion; has worked in many musical groups over the past 20 years from duo, to full band, most notably the folk trio Marmalade Sky. Donna Strow: Vocals and Assorted Percussion; started singing backup vocals in her college band, and later put these skills to work in the second incarnation of Marmalade Sky. Paul Overly: Acoustic, Electric Guitars and Vocals; came to Baltimore in 2003 after many years playing in bands on the Mississippi and Alabama Gulf Coasts. In Baltimore, he played in Radio Karma, The Wires, and The Berwick Street Project (now known as The Great Escape). Paul enjoys a close association with Gretsch Guitars.

July 9 ~ Eileen the Singer

Eileen is "Liza" singing live and strong to recorded background musical tracks. For over 23 years Eileen has entertained audiences across the U. S. with her exciting one woman show as an Impersonator, Singer and Entertainer. She'll sing your favorites from Broadway Show Tunes and Ballads to captivate you and provide you with listening pleasure of Liza Minnelli. You'll enjoy the classics at their best!

July 16 ~ Howlin Mudbugs

The Howlin' Mudbugs are an acoustic Folk and Roots Rock group with New Orleans' Zydeco and Blues influences. The band was formed in 2005 by Kraig Greff and Chris Huntington. While sustaining a solid level of musicianship, the band energizes audiences with its up-beat song writing and engaging live show. The Howlin' Mudbugs are Kraig Greff on accordion and vocals, Chris Huntington on vocals and guitar, and Dan Hones on acoustic bass and vocals. Each road-seasoned member hosts an impressive and diverse musical/performance resume.

All concerts will be broadcast on 970 WAMD

July 23 ~ Joyful Noiz

Joyful Noiz is a Praise and Worship group from St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Aberdeen, Maryland. Members of the group are from Harford, Cecil and Kent Counties. As a team, they spread the message of Christian love through their music at St. Paul's and other venues throughout Harford and Cecil County. The group has been together for six years. Vocalists in the group are Christy Ward, Libby Richardson, Tim Brooks, Matthew Call, and Katrina Call. Instrumentalists in the group are Jenn Savin (Keyboards), Jake Bauer (bass), Sam Mardeness (guitar), Tom Phelan (drums) and Courtney Bauer (flute). Their playlist consists of contemporary Christian music, traditional Christian music and some originals.

July 30 ~ Chuck Baker Orchestra

The Chuck Baker Orchestra (CBO) is a local Harford County institution and has been in existence since the 1960's. Its founder Charles (Chuck) W. Baker was an instrumental music teacher in Harford County and is credited with starting Aberdeen's Summer Concert Series. The CBO consists of three main sections, Rhythm, Reeds and Brass and plays big band music in many styles: indicative of the old band/orchestras in today's style of stage band arrangements/orchestrations in jazz and modern jazz and all other styles including rock and roll, country, polka and Dixieland.

August 6 ~ No Pro Bono

"No Pro Bono" is a three piece band that plays primarily classic rock, but to mix it up, delves into pop, country and blues. The band leans heavily on covers of classic rock hits, but definitely enjoys getting into some "deep tracks". The members of "No Pro Bono" are Mark Boyle (Havre de Grace) on guitar, bass, harmonica and vocals, Mike Hiob (Aberdeen) on guitar, harmonica, and vocals, and Rick Bryan (Northeast) on drums and vocals. "No Pro Bono" has a large selection of songs on its list, but our motto is "we'll play your requests if we know them"!

August 13 ~ Bay Country Gentlemen

Bay Country Gentlemen first sang in 1978 and now are the Harford County, MD Chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society (SBESQSA, Inc.) An all-male, all volunteer chorus singing four-part a cappella music in a unique art form original to America. While Barbershop Harmony Society strives to preserve the "barbershop style" of music, today's singers may not relate to "Sweet Adeline." Selections of more recent popular songs have been arranged utilizing the "barbershop" chord structuring that is unique to them. They still sing arrangements from early-American music, but also perform many numbers from today's artists, Broadway hits and more!

August 20 ~ Somethin' Borrowed

Somethin' Borrowed is a talented trio playing a variety of music from jazz standards to well-known pop favorites from all ages. From the early classics of Billy Strayhorn to Maroon 5, the Somethin' Borrowed Trio offers unique interpretations and arrangements of all types of music.

Refreshments will be available for purchase at Festival Park.

In the event of inclement weather, performances will be held at Aberdeen Middle School
